

Undergraduate Study Abroad Scholarships

IUPUI Scholarships

General Scholarship:

IUPUI International Experience Scholarships: This award is intended to support IUPUI undergraduate students in an approved study abroad program. The awards are generally $1,000-3,000, depending on program length. Candidates must be degree seeking at IUPUI/IUPUC and participate in an approved overseas program in which they will earn credit towards an IUPUI/IUPUC degree. Non-degree seeking students who are completing a certificate may also be considered on a case-by-case basis. You do not need to be accepted into a program before applying for the scholarship. For more information, check: <http://go.iu.edu/5Ms> or contact the Study Abroad Office: abroad@iupui.edu; (317) 274-2081. DEADLINES: February 16th for summer, fall and academic year programs; October 15th for spring and spring break programs.

Existing Scholarships:

Are you currently receiving a scholarship? If so, you may be able to use it toward study abroad! The following scholarships have a stipend which may be used toward study abroad:

Plater International Scholars Program

$ 2,500 study abroad stipend

Adam W. Herbert Presidential Scholars Program

$2,500 study abroad stipend

Valedictorian and Salutatorian Scholarships*

$2,500 study abroad stipend

Outstanding Freshman Scholarship*

$2,500 study abroad stipend

Bepko Scholars and Fellows Program

$2,500 study abroad stipend

Chancellor's Scholars

$2,500 study abroad stipend

(* denotes that the stipend is only available to 08'-09' and 09'-10' scholarship recipients)

Herron School of Art & Design:

Rev. A. Ian FRASER International Travel Award: Up to $2,000 awarded to a full-time Herron student to travel with a Herron sponsored international program. Student must have a minimum overall GPA of 3.30. The application for this award is included in the application to all Herron study abroad programs.

DEADLINE: same deadline as Herron program applications.

Miller Student Travel Award: Approximately $500 will be awarded to Herron students who have demonstrated superior talent and skills and an interest in pursuing art studies in the US or abroad. The application for this award is included in the application to all Herron study abroad programs.

DEADLINE: same deadline as Herron program applications.

Julia Z. Wickes Award: Approximately $1,500 will be awarded to full-time, undergraduate students pursuing a degree in fine arts by participating in a residential artistic studio environment located abroad. For more information, contact Herron Student Services, HR 126, (317) 278-9400.

DEADLINE: February 1

Lilly Family School of Philanthropy:

IUPUI RISE Scholarships: IUPUI is committed to helping students learn as much outside the classroom as in it. RISE is an initiative that encourages undergraduates to incorporate at least two of the four RISE-designated experiences – research, international, service learning and experiential learning – into their degree programs. RISE experiences provide skills, knowledge and real-world opportunities that are highly prized by employers and establish a foundation for future leaders. ELIGIBILITY: Students majoring in Philanthropic Studies through the IU Lilly Family School of Philanthropy are eligible for RISE scholarships offered by the school. For more information, contact Pamela Clark, TG 301, (317) 278-8927 pamelac@iupui.edu.

Kelley School of Business:

Dr. Victor E. CHILDERS International Study Award:

This award is to offset the costs of overseas study. The award amount varies. Candidates must be IU Kelley School of Business students studying in Indianapolis and have been admitted to an overseas study program in which they will earn credit towards an IU degree. Applications are available in the Kelley School of Business, BS 3024. For more information, contact Maureen Kinney, BS 3024, maukinne@iupui.edu; (317) 274-2147.

School of Engineering and Technology:

Yurtseven Scholarship: The Yurtseven scholarship is available to students in the School of Engineering and Technology who are planning to study abroad during the calendar year. Applications will be available after the first of the year. Amounts vary typically from $500 - $1,000. The amount of the award and the number of scholarships is dependent on the money in the fund. A committee of School faculty and staff will select the recipients. For more information, please contact Terri Talbert-Hatch, ttalbert@iupui.edu.

International Project-Based Learning Travel Grants:

Eligible students are those who plan to participate in approved programs that offer service or project-based learning. Students must be enrolled in a degree program offered by E&T. For more information or to apply, contact team8ols@iupui.edu, Attn. Prof. Timothy Diemer.

School of Liberal Arts:

Gail & William Plater International Scholarship for Civic Engagement: $1,000+ will be awarded for the summer or academic year. Recipients must be undergraduate or graduate students in the IU School of Liberal Arts involved in a project or program where students learn through their engagement with the community regardless of the physical location of the activity (i.e., it may be international as well as local). Faculty, who will serve as mentor to the student, will nominate recipients. For more information, contact the IU School of Liberal Arts, Office of Student Affairs, CA 243D, (317) 274-2868. On-line application is available at <http://liberalarts.iupui.edu/scholarship/>.

DEADLINE: February 1, for the following year.

Margaret A. COOK Foreign Study Award: $500 - $2,000 for students in Liberal Arts. Strong preference is given to foreign language majors or students studying in a non-English speaking country at the junior and senior level. Criteria for selection includes: cumulative GPA, language ability, and plans for continued study of a modern foreign language. For more information, contact the IU School of Liberal Arts, Office of Student Affairs, CA 243D, (317) 274-2868. On-line application is available at <http://liberalarts.iupui.edu/scholarship/>.

DEADLINE: February 1, for the following year.

BEAUDRY Summer Scholarships for French and Francophone Studies: Up to $1,200. This scholarship promotes and encourages the cultural and linguistic development of IUPUI students majoring or minoring in French by funding student participation in an academically approved foreign study programs in a French-speaking country during the summer session. IUPUI undergraduate French major preferred (may be an IUPUI French minor). For more information, contact the IU School of Liberal Arts, Office of Student Affairs, CA 243D, (317) 274-2868. On-line application is available at <http://liberalarts.iupui.edu/scholarship/>.

DEADLINE: February 1, for the following year.

Marius J. FAURE Family Scholarship: This $1,000 scholarship is awarded each year to an outstanding student who has declared a major in French language and literature at IUPUI. Not specifically for study abroad, it would nevertheless assist the student in participating in a program abroad. For more information, contact the IU School of Liberal Arts, Office of Student Affairs, CA 243D, (317) 274-2868. On-line application is available at <http://liberalarts.iupui.edu/scholarship/>.

DEADLINE: February 1, for the following year.

Max KADE German American Study Abroad Scholarship: $500. Supports the study of German via overseas study for IUPUI undergraduate students. Participation in an approved overseas study program for the study of German. Applicants must be working toward a degree. Full-time and part-time students are eligible. Study abroad credits must apply toward that degree. For more information, contact the IU School of Liberal Arts, Office of Student Affairs, CA 243D, (317) 274-2868. On-line application is available at <http://liberalarts.iupui.edu/scholarship/>. Or contact Dr. Claudia Grossmann, (317)274-3943 or cgrossma@iupui.edu.

DEADLINE: February 1, for the following year

Nancy Newton Study Abroad Scholarship: Provides up to $500 in support to undergraduate IUPUI Spanish majors and graduate students in the IUPUI Spanish M.A.T. for Spanish language study abroad programs (preference given for participation in the Salamanca and Pachuca programs). For more information, contact the IU School of Liberal Arts,

Office of Student Affairs, CA 243D, (317) 274-2868. On-line application is available at <http://liberalarts.iupui.edu/scholarship/>.

DEADLINE: February 1, for the following year.

Audrey Harshbarger Study Abroad Scholarship: Up to 1/3 of approved program costs for students studying abroad for a semester or year-long program. Recipients must be undergraduate students in the IU School of Liberal Arts. For more information, contact the IU School of Liberal Arts, Office of Student Affairs, CA 243D, (317) 274-2868. On-line application is available at <http://liberalarts.iupui.edu/scholarship/>.

DEADLINE: February 1, for the following year.

Christian J.W. Kloesel Educational Travel Award: Up to $1000 awarded per year to provide educational travel support. Recipients must be undergraduate students in the IU School of Liberal Arts. This award has the following criteria: a minimum GPA of 3.0. A written report following the completion of the travel is also required; preference for English majors. For more information, contact the IU School of Liberal Arts, Office of Student Affairs, CA 243D, (317) 274-2868. On-line application is available at <http://liberalarts.iupui.edu/scholarship/>.

DEADLINE: February 1, for the following year.

Alice Chandler Gockley and Gordon E. Gockley Memorial Scholarship: Up to $1,500 will be awarded per year to a student who has been accepted to an accredited international study program or enrolled in a Liberal Arts course that contains an international component that requires travel outside the United States of America. The recipients should have demonstrated financial need, as determined by standard university measures. Recipients must be undergraduate students in the IU School of Liberal Arts. For more information, contact the IU School of Liberal Arts, Office of Student Affairs, CA 243D, (317) 274-2868. On-line application is available at <http://liberalarts.iupui.edu/scholarship/>.

DEADLINE: February 1, for the following year.

P.M.G. and M.S.W. Harris Study Abroad Scholarship: $500. Eligible candidates will be students majoring in a School of Liberal Arts discipline and enrolled in an accredited study abroad program for a semester or year-long academic program. In selecting recipients, preference will be given to students majoring in history or graduate students in history. For more information, contact the IU School of Liberal Arts, Office of Student Affairs, CA 243D, (317) 274-2868. On-line application is available at <http://liberalarts.iupui.edu/scholarship/>.

School of Nursing:

Global Learning and Research in Nursing: The School of Nursing provides up to $1,200 in scholarship support for undergraduate students participating in coursework abroad. Through the Charlotte A. Carlley/Jean E. Schweer Mentorship in Cross-Cultural Studies Fund and the International Learning Experience Program Fund, students may be awarded support for course expenses. Criteria for selection include GPA, an essay on learning goals and relevance of course to program outcomes, and strong letters of support. Application is available online: <http://nursing.iu.edu/about/global/study-abroad-scholarship-app.shtml>. For more information, contact Prof. Mary Riner, mriner@iu.edu. DEADLINE: last Friday in February.

(over)

School of Physical Education and Tourism

Management:

Efroymsen TCEM Semester Study Abroad Award for Germany: The Department of Tourism, Conventions, and Event Management (TCEM) awards the Efroymsen-Tourism Management Study Abroad Award to a minimum of one student to study abroad for one semester in Germany (Feb-July). Minority students and those with financial need are encouraged to apply. Application is available online: <http://petm.iupui.edu>. For more information, contact Dr. Amanda Cecil: (317) 278-8569 or akcecil@iupui.edu. Applications and materials for consideration should be sent to tcemdept@iupui.edu. DEADLINE: October 15, 2014.

Efroymsen TCEM Study Abroad Award for Cruise Line Management: The Department of Tourism, Conventions, and Event Management (TCEM) awards the Efroymsen-Tourism Management Study Abroad Awards to five students who plan to enroll in the Cruise Line Management study abroad program (to offset travel expenses). Minority students and those with financial need are encouraged to apply. The study abroad program takes place over spring break. Application is available online: <http://petm.iupui.edu>. For more information, contact Susan Alvarez in TCEM: (317) 278-6078 or slalvare@iupui.edu. Applications and materials for consideration should be sent to tcemdept@iupui.edu. DEADLINE: October 15, 2014.

Efroymsen TCEM Study Abroad Award for the Germany Summer Experience: The Department of Tourism, Conventions, and Event Management (TCEM) awards the Efroymsen-Tourism Management Study Abroad Awards to five students who plan to enroll in the Germany Summer Experience Program study abroad program (to offset travel expenses). Minority students and those with financial need are encouraged to apply. The study abroad program takes place over three weeks in June (Summer I). Application is available online: <http://petm.iupui.edu>. For more information, contact Dr. Amanda Cecil: (317) 278-8569 or akcecil@iupui.edu. Applications and materials for consideration should be sent to tcemdept@iupui.edu. DEADLINE: January 15, 2015.

School of Public & Environmental Affairs (SPEA)

Summer 2015 automatic awards: SPEA undergraduate students participating on a SPEA overseas program (offered either through Indianapolis or Bloomington) will receive a scholarship for half of the stated program fees, up to $2,000.

For information on the total costs for each program, with the automatic scholarship, please visit http://www.indiana.edu/~spea/spea_abroad/, select your desired program, and view the costs.

Please visit

<http://www.spea.iupui.edu/future/undergrad/admissions/scholarships.php> for additional information about the International Experience Scholars opportunity. For more information contact: Matthew Thompson, BS 3025, (317) 274-4775, thompmat@iupui.edu

DEADLINE for competitive awards: March 1.

School of Science

RISE – Study Abroad Scholarship: The RISE-Study Abroad scholarship provides support for a continuing Science major that is enhancing his or her educational experience through studying abroad. For more information, contact Molly Rondeau, LD 222, (317) 274-0672, mrondeau@iupui.edu. DEADLINE: January 15

Office of Student Scholarships:

While not explicitly related to study abroad, the Office of Student Scholarships offers scholarships to continuing IUPUI students. These scholarships may be applied to study abroad programs. Explore your options here:

<http://www.iupui.edu/~scentral/>

IUB Scholarships

IU Office of Overseas Study.

Minority Scholarships:

Overseas Study need-based Minority Scholarships are available for all IU administered programs. Applications are due by your program application deadline and may be found at www.indiana.edu/~overseas.

Non-IUB Campus Scholarships:

Overseas Study Scholarships are available to students enrolled on one of the IU System campuses for all IU administered programs. Applications are due by your program application deadline and may be found at www.indiana.edu/~overseas.

Kelley School of Business Overseas Study Scholarships:

Scholarships are available to participants on IU-administered and co-sponsored programs. Awards range from $1000-$1500 (semester) and $500-$750 (summer). Applications are due by your program application deadline and may be found at www.indiana.edu/~overseas.

Non-IU Scholarships

Freeman Asia Grants are awarded to students who study in East and Southeast Asia by providing them with awards ranging from $3000 (summer programs) to $7000 (academic year programs). Grants are available for summer, semester and academic year terms. For more information, visit www.iie.org/programs/freeman-asia

(over)

Deutscher Akademischer Austausch Dienst (DAAD) offers a wide range of opportunities to students for study and research in Germany. For more information, visit www.daad.org/?p=50407

David L. Boren Scholarship The National Security Education Program (NSEP) www.borenawards.org Boren Scholarships are available to degree-seeking undergraduates planning to study abroad for at least 8 weeks. The award focuses on geographic areas, languages, and fields of study that are critical to U.S. national security, broadly defined and underrepresented in study abroad. Applicants should identify how their study abroad program, as well as their future academic and career goals, will contribute to U.S. national security, broadly defined. There is a significant government service requirement. Emphasized world regions include Africa, Asia, Central and Eastern Europe, Latin America and the Caribbean and the Middle East. Excludes: Western Europe, Canada, Australia, and New Zealand.

The Benjamin A. Gilman Scholarship program enables students who have limited financial means to participate in study abroad opportunities worldwide. The program provides awards of up to $5,000 for U.S. citizen undergraduate students at two- and four-year institutions to pursue semester or academic-year long study abroad opportunities in other countries. To be eligible students must be receiving a Federal Pell Grant at the time of application and cannot be studying abroad in a country currently under a U.S. Department of State Travel Warning or in Cuba. Please visit: www.iie.org/en/Programs/Gilman-Scholarship-Program

Thomas R. Pickering Foreign Affairs Fellowship prepares talented college sophomores and seniors to become Foreign Service Officers in the United States Department of State after completion of undergraduate and graduate degrees. The fellowship award includes tuition, room, board, and mandatory fees during the senior years of college and during the first year of graduate.. More information available online at: <http://woodrow.org/fellowships/pickering/>

Bridging Scholarship Program $2500-4000 stipend; awards scholarships annually to assist students with the travel and living expenses they will incur will studying abroad in Japan for a semester or academic year. Undergraduate students majoring in any field of study and attending any recognized exchange or independent program in Japan are eligible to apply for these scholarships. For more information on the Bridging Scholarships or the application procedure, please contact the AATJ office: aati@aatj.org <http://www.aatj.org/studyabroad/scholarships>

Killam Fellowships Program $5,000 per semester, and includes a health coverage allowance. The Killam Fellowships Program is a unique exchange opportunity that offers American undergraduate students the chance to spend either one semester or a full academic year studying at a university in Canada..For more information: <http://www.killamfellowships.com/>

Education New Zealand Study Abroad Travel Awards (ENZTA) $2000 award to help students fund their flight to New Zealand. Visit <http://www.enz.govt.nz/> and click on “Our Services”→ “Scholarships” for other information and eligibility requirements. For further, please contact Sam

Note: Other scholarships may also be available for you to use on a study abroad program. We strongly encourage you to check with your school and department administrators for the most recent scholarship information.

Hoben, sam.hoben@enz.govt.nz.

Generation Study Abroad New Zealand Universities Excellence Awards (NZUEA) $500 for a student to study abroad at 1 of 8 New Zealand universities. Visit <http://www.enz.govt.nz/> and click on “Our Services”→ “Scholarships” for other information and eligibility requirements. For further, please contact Sam Hoben, sam.hoben@enz.govt.nz.

Search Study Abroad Scholarships

- www.studyabroad.com/forum/financial_aid.html
- <http://allabroad.us/funding-study-abroad-scholarships.php>

The IUPUI Study Abroad Office:
ES 2129 B Office Hours:
(317) 274-2081 Monday - Friday
abroad@iupui.edu 9:00am - 5:00pm